

Kitchen Schedule:

9:00 am- Interpreting Medieval Recipes- Part 1: Taught by Lady Ainthbine Hergeirskona. This class is an introductory class to creating your own recipes from period resources. Topics to be discussed include finding your sources, interpreting those sources, culinary terms, creating your recipe and testing and tweaking. When class has been completed the students will have interpreted a single recipe from a period source.

Class limit: 6-8

Class length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

10:00am: Interpreting Medieval Recipes- Part 2: Taught by Lady Bronwyn ni Mhathain. In part one of this class, you made your own fresh cheese, now what do you do? In the second part of the class you will make “A Dish of Curds”, a sweet desert that will be featured in the feast. This class will touch upon the skills learned from interpreting recipes as well, offering a second opportunity to interpret a recipe from a period source.

Class limit: 6-8

Class length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

11:00 am- Bread making 101: Taught by Her Excellency, Baroness Allegra Ginevra Soave da Napoli. Learn how to make a loaf of bread from scratch. Note: This class will be in 3 sections. At 11am (30 minutes), 1pm (10 minutes), and 2pm (10 minutes). Bread should be finished by 3pm

Class limit: 5

Class Length: 30min/10min/10min

Class fee: $1

1:00pm- Bread making 101 cont.

2:00pm- Bread making 101 cont.

Classroom 1:

10:00 am- (Class canceled, open for teaching)

11:00 am- Preparing for Your First Feast: Taught by Lady Ainthbine Hergeirskona. A detailed look at what you will need to plan your first feast. I'll talk about my recent experiences and share information from classes I've loved.

Class limit: 12

Class Length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

1:00pm- The Basics of Being a Wife in the 14th Century: Taught by Lady Kathryn le Wrytar. Intro discussion on “A Medieval Home Companion”, it's parts and principles followed by participant discussion on how it may change our view of the reenactment persona.

Class limit: none

Class Length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

2:00pm- Medieval Prayer, a Primer for the laity: Taught by Abot Meister Johann von Metten, O.L. A brief introduction to the basic Christian prayers found in period. Bring your pater nosters and rosaries and we'll put them to work!

Class limit: None

Class Length: 45 minutes

Class Fee: Free

3:00pm- Viking Era Foodstuffs: Taught by Lady Tilla Chandler. Learn what the Vikings ate or didn't eat and why. Information on foodstuff has been gleaned from archaeological digs and sagas. Try created recipes based on information from the archaeological digs and sagas.

Class limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

4:00pm- Viking Ships, what isn't in the books: Taught by Ian of Senlac. The practical details of what books on the subject have left out.

Class limit: None

Class length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

5:00pm (open for teaching)

Classroom 2

10:00am Introductory to Illumination: Planning a Scroll: Taught by Lady Frigga Vilhalmirsdottir. This class will walk you through the basics of laying out a simple scroll design. We will go over the basics of planning a layout, simple border designs and how to take the next steps. Period examples will be provided. There is no class fee for this class, however, you are encouraged to bring pencils, erasers, pens, rulers, and heavyweight paper. Basic materials will be brought to share if you are unable to bring your own.

Class limit: 6 kits will be provided. However, if the class is full and you have your own supplies you may practice with us. You are more than welcome to come and listen as well.

Class Length: 1 Hour

Class Fee: Free

11:00am - Conversational Old English: Taught by Countess Isolde de la Ramée. Learn basic pronunciation and some useful phrase for your next trip to Anglo-Saxon England.

Class limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

1:00pm- Reading the Wanderer: Taught by Countess Isolde de la Ramée. Join others in reading an Old English poem. We will start with some basic pronunciation and then we will take turns reading The Wanderer. (You will have the choice of reading either from the original or a facing-page translation.)

Class limit: None

Class length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

2:00pm- Basic Embroidery – 8 Period Stitches: Taught by the Honorable Lady Jerusha a’Laon. Using Mistress Elasaïd nic Subhine’s “8 Period Stitches” handout, we will review and practice the following stitches: stem, split, satin, long&short, running, couching, laid work, and chain stitch. Other basic embroidery tips and tricks will be discussed.

Class limit: 10 kits will be available, unlimited number may audit the course.

Class Length: 2 hours

Class Fee: $5.00 Cost if the student wishes to keep the kit. Otherwise, no charge

4:00pm- Blackwork 101: Taught by Leonora Martelli. A beginners guide to blackwork embroidery.

Class limit: 10 sit-ins welcome

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: 5$ if you want a kit.

5:00pm- Intermediate Illumination: Illuminated Letters: This class will walk you through how to make illuminated letters with decorative motifs. Period examples of illuminated letters will be provided for examples. If time allows we will also ink and paint our letters. Taught by Lady Frigga Vilhalmirsdottir.

Class Limit: 6. You may observe and audit, but be aware that this class is practical application and can get busy.

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free, but students are encouraged to bring their own watercolor/gouache paints, pencils, erasers, pens, and ink. Basic materials will be provided.

Classroom 3

10:00am- How to Wrap Leg Wraps, and Keep Them Up: Taught by Lord Hrafn-Ivarr. How to wrap leg wraps well enough to keep them up through the day, and while fighting.

Class limit: Unlimited, some leg wraps can be borrowed for the class, but limited.

Class length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

11:00am-SCA for Fun & Non-Profit: Taught by Lady Sarah Ketillswif. Social media is a fact of modern life. Niche organizations like the SCA can benefit but only if it's done right. Instructor is the voice of three Billion Dollar Brands in mundane life and MK Social Media Deputy. Learn how to admin groups, how to create ads and even highlight A&S. Ideal for officers of baronies & kingdoms, business owners, or SCA communicators of any kind.

Class Limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free, $2 if you want to take a printout

1:00pm- SCA Soldiering: Taught by Lord Einarr Ginnfastsson. This is a retelling of Sir Boris' SCA Soldiering class taught t Collegium 2 years ago. It is a basic primer for melee combat for both Heavy and Rapier fighting.

Class limit: 15

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

2:00pm- Being a Better Soldier- for Heavy and Rapier: Taught by Lord Einarr Ginnfastsson. Each soldier is one blade, thrusting tip, arrow, or ballista bolt away from being promoted. You're in charge now, what do you do? This class will contain a short lecture on why we train, fight in groups, and use tactics. A discussion over making smarter decisions on the field when you have to be the one giving commands.

Class Limit: 15

Class Length: 1 hour, 30 min

Class Fee: Free

3:30pm- Making period looking rattan weapons: Taught by Sör Ustad Hasan al Hajjii. Construction of more period representations of rattan weapons. This includes; shaping, steaming, creative foam and taping, and various techniques for some of the newer style weapon constructions.

Class limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

5:00pm- (Open for teaching)

Classroom 4

10:00am- How to Garb on a Budget: Taught by Nora. Exploring cost effective ways to get the garb you've always wanted.

Class limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class fee: Free

11:00am- Naalbinding: Taught by Hlaefdige Gyða Arnarsdóttir. Learn about naalbinding and how to start in the round or as a caterpillar, increasing, decreasing, and designing your own projects.

Class limit: 5 hands-on with instructor assistance but if you just want to audit, any number can sit with or without their own materials.

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: $2 for supplies/handout in class, $5 to take a starter kit home. Free to audit and you can bring your own supplies (small skein of preferably wool yarn, large tapestry needle/naalbinding needle, 54" shoe lace preferably a round boot lace type, thread if needed)

1pm-3pm- Introduction to Chainmaille. Taught by Herr Röd Grön. Teaching the basic 4-1 chainmaille pattern, and using easy to work with aluminum and rubber rings, making a simple bracelet.

Class Limit: 15

Class Length: 2 hours

Class Fee: Donations will be accepted for material costs. Rings and pliers will be available for use. Pliers and extra rings (supplies may be limited) may be purchased after classes are finished for the day.

3:00pm- Sewing an Anglo-Saxon Ring Purse. Taught by Lady Leah of Wycombe. We will hand stitch an easy purse that hangs from your waist belt. There are choices of fabrics. A sewing machine will be there for quick sewing of the inner lining.

Class limit: 12

Class Length: 1 hour 30 minutes

Class Fee: A kit is provided for 5$. (ring, fabric, needle/straight pins, handout with pictures.) Scissors and linen sewing thread provided.

4:30pm- The Poor Man's Bible; a pictorial look at medieval stained glass windows: Taught by Lady Tilla Chandler. Learn how the Bible and the Roman Catholic Church influenced the making and evolution of stained glass windows during the medieval period. Find out why stained glass windows were sometimes called the Poor Man's Bible. Stained glass windows were a reflection of the community and also conveyed the political, social, and religious views of the time.

Class limit: None

Class Length: 1 hour

Class Fee: Free

Misc. other locations

Gathering Hall- Far Back-Left Area:

11:00am- The Difference Between Safety and Proficiency: What to Expect in your Armored Proficiency Authorizations. Taught by His Excellency, Master Edward Foxley. This class will go over the different weapon styles and authorization expectations for each. (Not including Combat Archery and Siege) Armor not required for this class.

Class Limit: None

Class Length: ½ hour to 45 minutes

Class Fee: Free